KAUNAIN SHERIFF M
NEW DELHI, DECEMBER 22

JUST TWO weeks after the expert committee scrutinising applications for emergency use authorisation (EUA) of Pune-based Serum Institute of India's Covid-19 vaccine sought additional late-stage safety and efficacy data, the firm has submitted fresh data to the regulator, government sources said.

"Serum Institute India has submitted additional data. The regulator's office, internally, will review these documents. Only then they will request the Subject Expert Committee (SEC) to meet," sources told The Indian Express.

Significantly, the media has reported that the UK regulator is set to "clear" the Oxford-AstraZeneca vaccine, "possibly on December 28 and December 29". In India, SII which sought EUA from the Drugs Controller General of India (DGI) on December 10 was asked to submit safety data on Phase 2/3 clinical trials in India of its vaccine candidate named Covishield, developed by Oxford-AstraZeneca. During the weekly briefing, Dr V K Paul, who co-chairs the high-level committee on vaccine

CBI arrests Kashmir man for 'running child sex racket in US'

DEEPTIMAN TIWARY
NEW DELHI, DECEMBER 22

THE CBI has arrested a man in Kashmir for allegedly running a child sex abuse racket along with his US-based wife. The accused, identified as Niyaz Ahmed Mir (35), was Tuesday produced before a special court in Srinagar, which remanded him in CBI custody.

Mir's wife, identified as Tamara Stanley (34), is a resident of Washington. She was arrested on June 25 this year and was "charged with production of child pornography", according to a US Justice Department statement.

CBI said the couple allegedly targeted minors in the US and "uploaded pornographic videos and images over the dark web for financial gains" and were "also involved in direct communication with many minors in USA."

The agency on Tuesday also conducted searches at Mir's residence and recovered "incriminating digital evidences including 3 laptops, 5 mobiles, pen drives, hand written notes etc".

CBI spokesperson RK Gaur, said: "Accused was allegedly operating through his wife, who had agreed to be involved in a 'master-slave relationship'. She allegedly exploited multiple minors, recorded these abuses and electronically sent them to him. It was also alleged that when victims refused to follow his dictate, he shared these videos and images with their families." The US authorities unearthed the racket through Stanley's emails.
