AMBANI TERROR SCARE CASE

NIA seeks 90-day extension to file chargesheet against Waze, 4 others

SADAFMODAK MUMBAI, JUNE 7

THE NATIONAL Investigation Agency (NIA) Monday approached a special court seeking a 90-day extension to file its chargesheet in the Ambani terror scare case against the five accused, including dismissed assistant inspector Sachin Waze. The agency has said that the case has repercussions on the "territorial integrity, sovereignty and security of India" and if an extension is not granted there is a risk of the accused "slipping from the clutches of law".

The central agency has invoked charges under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act against the five accused arrested in the case. Under the Act, the investigating agency can file its chargesheet within 180 days of the first arrest but requires permission from the court after 90 days. Waze was the Man arrested for making fake Covid drugs in Meerut lab

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, JUNE 7

A MAN has been arrested for allegedly manufacturing fake Favipiravir tablets, used in Covid-19 treatment, at a private lab in Meerut. The police are now interrogating the accused, Sandeep Mishra, to find out for how long he has been making the fake Earlier, the state Food and Drugs Administration (FDA) had submitted a complaint on May 30 over the alleged production of fake tablets, all allegedly manufactured by M/s Max Relief Healthcare in Solan, following a raid on three drug dealers from Mumbai. On further inquiry, police found the firm did not exist.

On May 30, Sudip Mukherjee, the owner of Max Relief Healthcare, appeared for an inquiry before FDA but could not provide any documents regarding the production and sale of these drugs. A FIR was registered against Mukherjee under IPC and Drugs and Cosmetics Act and he was arrested by Samta Nagar police. "During the probe, police found out Mishra had made the tablets and another accused did the packaging after which Mukherjee sold them in wholesale," Aanandrao Haake, senior police inspector of Samta Nagar police station, said.

first person to be arrested in the case on March 13.

The court will also have to hear the accused on the plea since an extension in filing the chargesheet could impact their bail hearing and mean longer jail time pending investigation.

In its application, the NIA has said that due to the lockdown-like restrictions in the state since April, following the second wave of the coronavirus pandemic, it could not carry out investigation. It said that witnesses were not available for examination nor was collection of documentary and material evidence possible. The agency has also submitted that there is voluminous data to be analysed, which will require further time.

The accused, the NIA has said, are "highly influential" former policemen, who "will in all possible manner" threaten the prosecution witnesses, cause destruction of evidence, tamper and hamper the

Apart from Waze, the NIA has arrested dismissed policemen inspector Sunil Mane, assistant inspector Riyazuddin Kazi, and constable Vinayak Shinde. Naresh Gor, an alleged bookie, has also

The agency claims their involvement in the planting of explosives in an SUV, which was parked outside the Ambani residence on February 25, to threaten the family and that subsequently Jaish-ul-Hind, had emerged demanding money.

SENIOR NCP minister Chhagan Bhujbal Monday targeted the Centre for failing to furnish the population data based on Census 2011 to sustain reservation for people from the Other Backward Castes (OBCs) in local bodies in Maharashtra.

Launching an OBC Janjagruti Andolan in the state for the political rights of the backward and oppressed segments, Bhujbal said, "The Supreme Court's decision to strike OBC reservation in local bodies polls is certainly a cause of concern... The MVA government will urge the Centre to intervene and restore the political quota of OBC. After all, the apex court verdict would be applicable to the entire country. It cannot be restricted to a single state. Maharashtra."

to provide Census data on OBC'

Bhujbal targets Centre for 'failing

On Monday, the Food and Civil Supplies minister also convened a meeting of the Samata Parishad, an outfit he had constituted for championing the cause of the OBCs two decades ago.

While admitting that court verdict has led to a lot of apprehension and confusion among OBC workers, he said, "27 per cent reservation for OBCs in government educational institutions and employment remains. The SC verdict does not apply to the quota for jobs and admission in educational institutions." The SC verdict, he added, relates only to OBC representation in local bodies like zilla parishad, panchayat samitis, etc.

The matter was before the court since 2018 when the BJP was in power in the state, Bhujbal said. At that time, the state BJP had sought population data of OBCs from the Centre to substantiate their right to political quota in local bodies, but the Centre did nothing, the NCP leader said.

"In last 15 months, the MVA government has been confronted with Covid-19 pandemic. To expect the state government to undertake door-to-door population census exercise is ridiculous," Bhuibal said, adding it was easy for the Centre to furnish the OBC population details based on Census 2011 in the court.

Urging workers to exercise restraint, he said, "The MVA is committed to the OBC welfare. But if any injustice is done, we will launch a state-wide agitation to create awareness for the political rights of OBCs."

CIL's e-auction sales grow 53% in April-May

FE BUREAU Kolkata, June 7

DEMAND FROM COAL India's (CIL) e-auction sales has started looking up after the state-owned miner had dived down, when for most of the time last fiscal, the miner had to auction at a notified price for about six months to gain volumes in an effective short of demand market. For the first two months this fiscal, the company posted 52.5% growth, in auction bookings with the total allocated quantity at 21.5 million tonne (MT), under the five auction windows, against 14.1 MT for the comparable period last fiscal.

been reeling under the pandemic

Although both the fiscals have crisis, demand this fiscal has picked up, enabling CIL to garner 16% add-on over the notified price during April-May compared to 7% during the same period last fiscal.

During the two months of this fiscal, the non-power sector primarily drove the upward trend, accounting for 50% of the total booked quantity of 21.5 MT.

Under exclusive auction for the non-power sector, booking was at 10.8 MT during the period, posting 77% growth against 6.1 MT booked during comparable period last fiscal.

Power sector e-auction booking also grew 49% at 6.1 MT under 'special forward auction'meant exclusively for the said sector.

Even allocation during April-May last fiscal under the special forward e-auction window was kept as low as 4.1 MT.

"Though there is a revival in supplies to power sector, our concern is that there is still a bit of vacillation in the demand. We hope it stabilises soon" a senior official of the company said.

Auction allocation under 'spot auction' window, where all coal consumers including coal traders participate, clocked 35% growth at 4.6 MT ending May.

CIL scripted an all-time high of 124 MT in e-auction sales in FY21 posting 88% growth over the preceding year. "Hopefully, if the demand regains stability we aim to surpass the last year's mark with increased add-on over the notified price without letdown on supply commitment to power sector and non-power sector", said the executive.
